Park School Cagers Win

Park School's basketball team defeated an alumni outfit, 33 to 25, Wednesday in the Park gym. Ted Okie paced the varsity with 10 points, while Andy Parke got 6. Pete Dow, Harvard freshman, was high among 19 alumni players with 6.

Park Cagers Top Allendale, 37-30

Park School of Snyder notched a 37-30 victory over Allendale of Rochester as the Conference of Upstate Private Schools' basketball campaign opened last night.

Ted Okie led the Park School with ten points. Terry Check and Frank Soldwedel followed with eight apiece. Allendale's Jim Gleason took the game's scoring honors with 14 points.

Park punched out a 6-4 lead during the first period but Allendale spurred to take a 17-12 command midway through the second quarter. Park came up with a ten-point string at this juncture to hold a 22-17 advantage at the intermission and was never headed thereafter.

Allendale will meet Nichols School here this afternoon.

Allendale Host to Buffalo Quintet

Andrews, Jess Green and John Ratcliffe; back, Warren Maisland, Ed Conley, Terry Newell and Jay Anderson. Allendale lost to Park School in game earlier this season.

The Allendale varsity basketball team and the Jayvees will play host to the Park School of Buffalo in a doubleheader tonight in Allendale's Alumni Memorial Gym.

The Jayvee game is scheduled to start at 7:30 p. m., with the varsity game immediately following.

The Varsity game is part of the Conference of Upstate Private Schools program and will be an important one in league competition. Park defeated Allendale by a narrow 37-30 margin on the Buffalo court Jan. 5.

In tonight's game the Allendale quintet, led by game captain Jim Gleason, will be handicapped without the services of their starting guard, Ed Conley, who suffered an ankle injury in the game at Industry last Tuesday. The record of the Allendale quintet so far this season is three wins and two losses.
