

PARK SCHOOL OPENS WITH PAIR OF VICTORIES

The Park School basketball team opened its season with a pair of victories over Neumann High of Williamsville, 58-41 and the Alumni, 64-39.

Minus a couple of regulars and competing for the second time in two days, Neumann was unable to stem the second half rush of the Pioneers as Dale Casto with 20 and Howie Maierhofer with 18 sparked the Snyder team to its opening victory of the season. Bob Wilson contributed 10 in his first varsity start, while Denny Morrissey and Bob Frank had 13 and 12 for the Neumann team. Lineups:

Table showing basketball lineups for Park vs Neumann, listing players and their statistics (Points, Rebounds, Assists).

Table showing basketball lineups for Park vs Alumni, listing players and their statistics.

Park appeared to have found a starting five which raced to a 27-10 lead in the first quarter over the Alumni. The Alumni managed to come back in the next quarters to show some of their old-time prowess. Dale Casto and Tom Zierk led the Pioneers with 14 and 12 points for the half which they played while Ray Senderk led the Alumni with 18 points. Lineups:

Table showing basketball lineups for Park vs Alumni, listing players and their statistics.

Table showing basketball lineups for Park vs Alumni, listing players and their statistics.

Table showing basketball lineups for Park vs Alumni, listing players and their statistics.

Table showing basketball lineups for Park vs Alumni, listing players and their statistics.

CASTO PACES PARK IN 58-41 VICTORY

Scoring 20 points, Dale Casto Wednesday afternoon led the Park School to a 58-41 victory over Neumann as the season's basketball schedule got under way at the Park School. Howard Maierhofer added 18 more points for the winners. Dennis Morrissey and Bob Frank led the losers with 13 and 12 points. The box score follows:

Box score for Park vs Neumann, listing players and their statistics.

Park Quint Posts 58 to 41 Victory

Dale Casto whipped in 20 points, and Howard Maierhofer added 18, as Park School opened its basketball season by scoring a 58-41 victory over Neumann, yesterday afternoon at Park School. Dennis Morrissey and Bob Frank paced Neumann with respective totals of 13 and 12 points.

Box score for Park vs Neumann, listing players and their statistics.

Park Quint Tops Alumni, 64-39

Park School won its second straight basketball game yesterday by defeating the Park Alumni, 64-39. Dale Casto with 14 points, was Park's high scorer and Ray Senderk topped the Alumni with 18.

Box score for Park vs Alumni, listing players and their statistics.

PINE HILL DOWNS PARK CAGERS, 51-48

Though the Park School cagers had the game's top individual scorer, Dale Casto, with 18 points, they were unable to outscore host Pine Hill, a 51-48 winner Tuesday in a nonleague high school basketball game. Dave Reinhardt had 14 points for Pine Hill. The box score follows:

Box score for Pine Hill vs Park, listing players and their statistics.

Park School Sinks Pine Hill, 52-47

The Park School basketball team made its record 3-1 yesterday by defeating visiting Pine Hill, 52-47. Howie Maierhofer netted 16 points and Dale Casto scored 14 as the Park team avenged its lone setback of the season. Dick Mamott was high for Pine Hill with 15.

Box score for Park vs Pine Hill, listing players and their statistics.

Summary box score for Park vs Pine Hill.

Runnymede Downs

Runnymede Collegiate, of Toronto, scored a 54-51 victory over Park School at the Park Gym yesterday. Gary Vipond, of Runnymede, was the game's high scorer with 19 points. Tom Zierk topped Park with 13.

Box score for Runnymede vs Park, listing players and their statistics.

Allendale Cagers Top Park, 51-42

Rochester, Jan. 15—Allendale School, the defending champion, posted a 51-42 victory over the Park School of Snyder, N. Y., in the opening Conference of Upstate Private Schools league game tonight at Allendale. The victory was the sixth straight for Allendale. Park School now has a 4-3 record.

The Park School will meet Harley School in another Conference game here tomorrow afternoon.

Box score for Allendale vs Park, listing players and their statistics.

Summary box score for Allendale vs Park.

PARK CONQUERS NICHOLS AS CASTO, MAIERHOFER STAR

Howie Maierhofer scored the three deciding points in the last 45 seconds of play, but the all-around performance of Center Dale Casto was outstanding in Park School's 46-42 victory over visiting Nichols in a benefit basketball game.

Casto scored 21 points, rebounded well and played a good defensive game as Park handed the Big Green its first loss. Park, with a record of four wins in six starts, opens its Conference of Upstate Private Schools' campaign in Rochester over the week-end.

Ron Schmitt, connecting on outside jump shots, paced Nichols with 18 points. The game was for the benefit of the Dr. James A. Naismith Memorial Fund. The box score follows:

Box score for Park vs Nichols, listing players and their statistics.

Park Rally Tips Nichols, 46-42

Howie Maierhofer's three-point-er, with less than 30 seconds remaining, gave Park School a 46-42 victory over traditional rival, Nichols at the Park Gym yesterday.

Trailing almost all the way, Park knotted the count at 32-32 on Dale Casto's fourth quarter bucket. The score was tied five times in the hectic last period until Maierhofer broke the ice. Casto added a free throw shortly before the gun.

Casto topped all scorers with 21 points, including seven during Park's winning drive.

Box score for Park vs Nichols, listing players and their statistics.

PARK CAGERS LOSE CUPS DEBUT, 51-42

Special to The Buffalo Evening News ROCHESTER, Jan. 16.—Despite a 21-point performance by Center Dale Casto, the Park School quintet Friday was defeated by Allendale, 51-42, in the opening of the Conference of Upstate Private Schools Basketball League. It was Park's third loss in seven games. The box score follows:

Box score for Allendale vs Park, listing players and their statistics.