On Saturday Park visited Gow School for the annual Fathers' Day game after playing 4 innings in a steady drizzle, finally had the game called while ahead 3-2. It was the 8th victory in 9 games for the Pioneers, one of the best records in years. Dale Casto maintained control of the slippery ball enough to allow but 3 scratch hits, struck out 6, and allowed 2 runs, both obtained by the slippery conditions. In addition, his first hit scored Bob Wilson and he was in turn scored later by Don Lischer's double for what proved to be the winning run. Summary
