

Park School Athletes Receive 3 Title Trophies

For the first time in the history of the Upstate Private Schools League, one school has won the baseball, football and soccer championship trophies. Friday night Park School in Snyder officially received the trophies. Co-captains of the school's three title teams accepted the trophies. They are, seated, Dave Stewart, with German A. C. Soccer Trophy; standing, from left, Bob Wilson, soccer; Dave Lyons with Dartmouth Baseball Trophy, and John Reissig with Yale Football Trophy.

Park Athletes Honored

Last Friday night, at the annual fall father and son get-together, Park School athletes were honored as they received trophies signalling their recent team championships in the Conference of Upstate Private Schools.

David Taylor represented the Dartmouth alumni of W. N. Y. as he awarded the cup for baseball to co-captains David Lyon and Don Lischer. This was Park's first leg on the new trophy put into play a year ago.

Ray Walters of the Buffalo German A. C. made the presentation to co-captains Bob Wilson and Dave Stewart as Park became the first school to annex two legs on the cup now in its 5th year. The soccer team had won two years ago.

Howard Cowan, president of the Yale Alumni of W. N. Y. made the football trophy award and since this was Park's third win in four years, it was retired permanently. Co-captains Dave Lyon and John Reissig accepted in behalf of the school.

PARK ATHLETES WON 5 TROPHIES

Park School athletes had their best sports year in the Conference of Upstate Private Schools. For the first time in history, one school—Park—won all five conference trophies during the 1953-54 school year.

The Park team tied Allendale of Rochester for the basketball crown, then went on to sweep titles in track, baseball, six-man football and soccer.

Tom Zierk and Dale Casto closed out illustrious careers. They participated in all sports but soccer and established several records.
