Local E.C.I.C. Teams Ready To Start Action On Friday

Pictured above are the "key men" on the local high school baseball teams. Starting at the bottom and going clockwise are Dave Weigel, Williamsville; Torrey Rogerson, Park School; Joe Marinelli, Sweet Home; Joe Caggiano, Amherst; Wayne Leising, Neumann, and David Ebersole, Clarence.

Amherst, Clarence, Sweet Home and Williamsville are set for their Erie County Interscholastic Conference baseball openers Friday, April 29. Park School launched its campaign on April 26, playing at Harley.

Park Well Balanced; Slow Start Possible

With six returning lettermen from last year's squad, Park School coach Herb Moles is looking forward to a good year. He feels that a slow start may be in order though, because his charges have also been practicing for the school musical.

Outfielder Torrey Rogerson appears to be the key man in the Park School attack. Other mainstays appear to be catcher Pete Barnes, first baseman Curt Siegel, outfielder Mike Alpern, utility man Toby Klyn, and pitcher Mark Smith.

The Park School schedule follows: April 26, at Harley; May 3, Nichols; May 6, at Allendale; May 7, at Gow; May 10, DeVeaux; May 13, at Pebble Hill; May 17, Harley; May 18, Gow; May 20, Pebble Hill; May 23, Allendale; May 31, at DeVeaux.

Nichols Wins Track Crown

The 12th annual Nichols School Invitational track meet was won by Nichols yesterday, with Allendale School of Rochester second, eight points behind.

Nichols had 46 points, Allendale 38, DeVeaux of Niagara Falls 28, Lakemont 12 and Park School 8.

Adam Kreuter was the meet's only double winner scoring in the shot put and discus.

The results:
