Dougherty Defeats Park, Wins Title

Cardinal Dougherty rolled up scoring margins in each of the first three periods last night to vanquish Park School, 69-58, and snare the championship of the first annual Holiday Invitational basketball tournament before a capacity crowd at Dougherty's gym.

Clarence, beaten by Dougherty on Tuesday night, captured third place by wallowing Akron, 79-40, in the consolation opener.

Dougherty had four players in double figures. Dennis O'Connor was high with 16, Pete Mang had 15, Dick Cieslik 13 and Dwight Bonk 10. But individual honors went to Park's Mark Smith, who racked up 30 for the tournament high.

The Cardinals led at the quarters, 15-7, 31-19 and 53-35. Dougherty has a 3-3 season's record, Park 2-3.

Clarence destroyed Akron early, rolling up a 20-0 lead before the Niagara-Orleans League representative broke into the scoring column. The Red Devils, now 4-1, were powered by George Bull, who tallied 19 points, and Lex Reyburn, who added 14.

Akron has an 0-5 season's record.
