Park Aims For '18'

Park School Coach Herb Mols has guided his teams to 17 straight wins and two straight Conference of Upstate Private Schools championships over the last three seasons. He will be looking for win number "18" when Park travels to Allendale tomorrow for its opener.

If might not go so smoothly for the Harlem Road School this season, however, as its first nine players were lost through graduation. The only two regulars left from last season are seniors' Bruce Brandl and Allan Garbe.

Brandl will be leading Park's six-man double wing offense at quarterback, and Garbe will fill one of the end positions.

Others that will be in the lineup for Park are Steve Koren, who will play at either center or end, injury-hobbled Clayton Stewart at center, and backs Bill Walker, Jerry Robinson, Mike Goldman and Jim Tedesco.

On defense Coach Mols plans to go with the offensive unit except for junior Max Evers, who will be starting at linebacker.

"I only hope that the other schools have lost as many players as we have," says Coach Mols commenting on the chances of winning his ninth CUPS championship in his 18 years as Park football coach.
