

Park Romps Over Lakemont, 73-48

Park again came up with a fine effort against visiting Lakemont Academy to win 73-48 to make its CUPS record 3 and 4 with Lakemont going down to its seventh straight loss. Led by Jim Morrison who matched his 25 point performance earlier against Lakemont, the Pioneers jumped to a 19-8 lead. Second period doldrums reduced the margin to 33-27 at halftime but a rousing rally in the third when Park outscored the visitors 24-9 put the victory on ice. Co-captain Rich Appel added 15 key points and 12 rebounds to assist Bill Derrick with 14 rebounds and Morrison with 17. Park shot 29 of 89 for 33% to the visitors'

Morrison Repeats; Emery Scores 408

Four seniors and one junior make up this year's AMHERST BEE All-Area Basketball team. One player from each of the five schools made up the "Dream Team." Jim Morrison of Park School, an All-Star nominee last season, is the sole returnee. Dan Emery of Amherst, the runner-up team in Division I, was the area's leading scorer. Don Wyc-koff of Sweet Home, Mike Coleman, Neumann, and John Chalmers, Williamsville round out the squad.

Morrison, who has started on varsity for three seasons, with 568 points has moved into 5th place among all-time Park scorers. His 247 for this year ranks him 10th in season total. He also led in rebounds this year with 149. From the field he shot 37%, 108 of 299; at the foul line he was 31 of 59, 52%.
