Age Group Swimmers Crack 25 Meet Marks

A total of 25 records fell by the wayside as teams from the Town of Tonawanda, Kenmore, Amherst, Williamsville, Tonawanda and North Tonawanda held their annual Niagara AAU age group swimming meet last night at the Lincoln Pool.

Swimmers from Kenmore and the Town of Tonawanda teamed up as a group and had a total of 16 records to their credit as they dominated the meet.

Amherst and Williamsville fractured six marks as a team, while Tonawanda and North Tonawanda accounted for three.

Tim O'Hara led the assault on the records for the Kenmore-Town of Tonawanda team by setting two marks in the Intermediate Boys competition. Kerry and Maureen O'Hara also set records for the KT churners.

Others were added by Mary Enright, Jane Klahn, Barbara Getty, Vicki Carlson, Judy Reesen, Denton Klahn, Virginia Burden and Jack Cobb. KT churners also set four relay marks.

Dave McKinnon, Don Keel, and Jim Moore accounted for individual records for the Amherst-Williamsville team. The other three AW marks were set in relay competition.

Joe Morrison bettered two records for Tonawanda-North Tonawanda. The other was set by Jack Cobb.
